

Runner-up

Oscar went playing with his doll named Delta. He got the doll when he was a baby and since then they were inseparable. Often he pretended they were in Lima and then he would dress the doll in a uniform, so he could pretend the doll was a little brave soldier. One day he met a boy, Charlie, who was a bit older than him. Nevertheless, they soon became friends and were always together. The friendship between the boys was so strong that it could endure everything. Well... almost everything.

Few years later, the boys reached an age where the women seemed more interesting, so they went out to a club. Soon after their arrival they lost each other in the massive crowd. After a while the youngest saw his best friend, but he wasn't alone. He was with a girl named Juliett. The lone boy got jealous and sad. After a while he started wandering through the building. Suddenly he felt a hand on his shoulder. Shocked, he turned and saw a handsome middle-eastern boy. The bright looking lad introduced himself as Victor and they started to chat. Soon Oscar forgot about his lost friend and stayed with his new friend all night. And maybe the next one too.
