

Haiku

Waves rush towards you.
Do not move the middle lines.
Wait! Haiku don't rhyme.

The ball at his feet.
A sun stopped at noonday's end.
You look at your screen.

Go you, you found it!
The committee could use drinks.
The waves stop coming.

Enjoying your book.
Roman Goddess of the hearth.
Good luck with puzzling.

The Flash cannot fly.
She was reading a novel.
To migrate down south.

Snowflakes gently fall.
As the summer approaches.
Glimmers to the end.

Your ship is sailing.
In the big open desert.
Super fast hero.

Magma rises fast.
Rushing next come the deep waves.
White winter beauty.

Look to the grey view.
Page after page you read it.
Long nights await us.

The great Vesta smiles.
The volcano is bursting.
Nightfall is coming.

Swallows congregate.
Yesterday's snow is still there.
They look for riches

Sand is everywhere
Lightning quick speed he gets there.
May her fire burn.

Kiddos come flocking.
Watching your favourite show.
You could use camels.

We like ciders much.
As pirates arrive near you.
They must take the leap.

I saw this model.
Breaking through he scores the goal.
What a weird plot twist.

Cliffhangers galore.
Sprinkled with beautiful stars.
The mountain erupts.

Vast, black, velvet space.
On electric wires ready.
He runs to his fans.
